A Marketing Event is defined herein as any event, exhibition, conference, convention, exposition (expo), forum, meeting, seminar, trade show, workshop, or other public gathering where the Distributor displays CG Companies information to potential Customers or Distributors and/or that provides a Distributor the ability to market the Company and the Opportunity to potential Customers and/or Distributors. It is the Distributor’s responsibility to receive approval from the onsite event coordinator and ensure that he or she is the only CG Companies Independent Distributor attending the event.

In addition to the General Marketing Standards in Section 4.1, a Distributor with a display at a Marketing Event must adhere to the following standards:

- a) Provide the potential Distributor and/or Customer with approved written information regarding the Company, the Opportunity, and/or the Products and/or Services immediately upon request;
- b) Provide the Company's telephone number for inquiries, verification, and complaints; and
- c) Strictly adhere to all of the Marketing Standards contained in the Distributor's Back Office and incorporated herein by this reference. We recommend that you visit the Back Office for your booth accessories and branding needs for a professional display.

Distributors are not permitted to promote the Company at flea markets, garage sales, or swap meets as these and other similarly situated events are not conducive to the professional image that the Company wishes to portray. The Company further reserves the right to refuse authorization to participate in any function that it does not deem suitable for the promotion of the Company.

4.3.2 - Internet Marketing

A Distributor is permitted to use standard and public online blogs, social networks, or other online forums to discuss the Opportunity, Products and/or Services as long as the content complies with the Policies and Procedures and the Marketing Standards. However, if a Distributor wishes to advertise or market the Company and the Opportunity via the previously mentioned channels, a Distributor may only do so by directing traffic to the Distributor's Personal Replicated Website or the Company marketing websites. This section does not apply to Distributor-developed websites. See Section 4.9.7 for detailed information.

In addition to the General Marketing Standards herein, a Distributor using blogs, social networks, or other online forums must comply with the following:

- a) Clearly indicate that you are an Independent Distributor and not an employee of the Company;
- b) Clearly indicate that you are not affiliated with any federal or state agency, commission, office, or its personnel;
- c) Strictly adhere to all of the Marketing Standards; and
- d) When publishing content that has to do with the Company, use a disclaimer noting that the postings are your own and do not represent the Company's views or opinions.

4.4 - Advertising and Marketing

Distributors shall safeguard and promote the good reputation of the Company. Distributors shall not engage in advertising practices that are deceptive, false, misleading, or unfair.

The following section deals with the subject of advertising and marketing. For purposes of clarification, advertising is defined as the action of calling something to the attention of the public. Marketing is defined as the process or technique of promoting, selling, and distributing a product and/or service.

With regard to both of these topics, a Distributor is not allowed to advertise and/or market to Distributors and/or Customers unless the Distributor utilizes the materials provided in the Distributor's Back Office or Company websites. All advertising materials (i.e. print, banners, flyers, letters, etc.) used by Distributors for advertising and/or marketing purposes hereunder can be found in the Back Office. These are the ONLY advertising and/or marketing materials that Distributors are permitted to use. Any deviation from or changes to these materials is strictly prohibited.

Distributors are prohibited from creating any customized advertising and/or marketing materials (i.e. print, banners, flyers, letters, etc.) that would be used to advertise and/or market to Distributors and/or Customers. Advertising and/or marketing, and particularly advertising and/or marketing that is considered high exposure (e.g., billboards, magazines, newspapers, radio, television), is not allowed for Distributors and/or Customers. Doing so, will be considered a breach of this Agreement.

Advertising and/or marketing may be considered for Distributors with the express written approval of the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com). In those rare instances where a Distributor wishes to create a piece of advertising and/or marketing material that would be used to advertise and/or market to Distributors and/or Customers that is not already provided in the Back Office, the Distributor may do so as follows:

The Distributor must first submit a draft of the material created to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com). This material will be reviewed by the Compliance Department and may be considered for approval on a case-by-case basis in the Company's sole and absolute discretion. Requests will be reviewed within five (5) business days whenever possible. Unless express written approval is received by the requesting Distributor, the request shall be deemed denied.

4.4.1 - Sales Aids and Training Materials

To promote the Opportunity, Distributors must exclusively use the sales aids and training materials produced by the Company. The Company approved and produced training materials are available in each Distributor's Back Office.

However, in rare circumstances, the Company may allow a Distributor to use promotional materials, training aids, or other literature that the Distributor has developed. If a Distributor wishes to use such self-produced materials, the Distributor must submit the materials to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com) for review. Unless the Distributor receives express written approval from the Compliance Department, the Distributor shall not be permitted to use self-produced materials.

The Company will not permit Distributors to sell sales aids, that promote, educate, or train the Opportunity to other Distributors without prior express written approval by the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com). Additionally, Distributors who receive authorization from the Compliance Department to produce their own sales aids may not sell such material for profit to any other Distributor, but may recover out-of-pocket costs for such materials and events.

4.4.2 - Promotional Materials

The Company has developed a success system based on proven experience and knowledge. As such, the Company has already created marketing materials and activities to fully support the Company, Opportunity, and Distributor's CannaGlobe Business. No other marketing material or activities are necessary to become successful as a Distributor. Only the promotional and advertising materials produced by the Company may be used to advertise or promote the Company and/or the Opportunity, whether written, record, or online. Advertising and marketing materials are defined as any printed, broadcast, or online communications including, but not limited to, advertisements, brochures, videos, flyers, banners, presentation materials, apparel, signage, internet, websites, video blogs, etc. The Company's promotional and advertising materials may be duplicated or reprinted without the prior written permission of the Company.

4.4.3 - Events

The Company supports the practice of opportunity meetings, business receptions, trainings, and live or virtual events as they are valuable tools when conducted with professionalism and integrity. Distributors may charge an entrance fee or sell event tickets, but the total fees received must not exceed the reasonable cost of such meetings and trainings or special events; provided, however, no Distributor may charge a fee or request payment from a prospective Distributor or Customer. No meeting or training is allowed to create any profit to those Distributors conducting the event. Distributors sponsoring such events must keep a detailed registration of all attendees and documentation of revenues and expenses. The Company, in its sole discretion, may attend Distributors events and/or audit any event to ensure compliance with these Policies and Procedures and may use recording devices in connection with such audits.

Distributors may not produce, or reproduce for sale or distribution any recorded Company events or speeches without the express written approval from the Compliance Department. Nor may Distributors reproduce for sale or for personal use any recording of audio or video presentations produced by or for the Company.

The Company reserves the right to rescind approval for any promotional materials, sales tools or other literature or events and Distributors waive all claims for damages or compensation arising from or relating to such rescission.

4.5 - Online Advertising and Marketing Standards and Practices

4.5.1 Internet Advertising Policy

The Company prohibits the use of any unapproved online advertising to promote the Company, the Opportunity, Products and/or Services, any online video, any Company website address or sub domain of a Company website address except as expressly set forth herein. Other than through a Personal Replicated Website (PRW), Distributors are prohibited from using internet sponsored links to take orders or leads for the Opportunity.

4.5.2 - Search Engine Advertising

A Distributor may use paid search engine advertising (e.g., Bing, Google) approved by the Company. Distributors may only use Company approved phrases available from the Compliance Department to promote Products and/or Services or the Opportunity. Distributors must agree to rules and regulations as applied by individual search engines. The Company is not affiliated in any way to any search engine with which a Distributor may be registered.

Distributors must submit requests to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com) to receive the express written approval prior to engaging the use of paid search engine advertising. Distributors receiving approval to engage in search engine advertising acknowledge that the success, or lack thereof, of search engine advertising is not the responsibility of the Company.

The Company allows Distributors to place approved advertising, such as sponsored links through search engines, on the internet to promote the Company and/or Opportunity. However, sponsored links may not contain any Company or its distributors registered trademark, logos, names, or copyrighted material and must strictly adhere to these Policies and Procedures.

Distributors may register their Personal Replicated Website (PRW) with internet search engines. These searches may be linked only to the Distributors's PRW. Distributors may not use any term that is a trademark, service mark, copyright, or that violates any other proprietary right held by another to register their PRW in a search engine.

4.5.3 - Links and Banner Ads

Distributors may place banner ads and links to their Personal Replicated Website on third-party websites, provided that the Distributor uses Company approved banner ads, templates and images. The third-party website:

Shall not contain any content or material that could be construed as unlawful, offensive, controversial, or distasteful;

Shall not contain content and materials that are not appropriate for all age groups; and

Must strictly adhere to all of the Marketing Standards.

The individual Web page that a link or banner ad is posted on shall not contain links or banner ads for any other Direct Selling company or in any way promote another Direct Selling company.

Prior to placing a link or banner ad on a third-party website, the Distributor must submit the URL of the third-party website to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com) for review. If the Compliance Department determines that the third-party website is acceptable for display of a Company banner ad or link, the Distributor will be notified in writing. Unless a Distributor receives express written approval from the Compliance Department, the request shall be deemed denied. If approval has been provided by the Company and at a later date the website content has changed and no longer meets the above standards, the Distributor must immediately remove the link or banner ad. If the Company's Compliance Department identifies the change, it will contact the Distributor and require the Distributor to immediately remove the banner ad(s) or link(s) from the website.

All banner ads must be linked to the Distributor's Personal Replicated Website. When directing readers to a Personal Replicated Website, it must be evident to a reasonable reader, from a combination of the link and the surrounding content, that the link will go directly to a Personal Replicated Website. Any attempt to mislead Internet readers into believing they are going to a Personal Replicated Website, when in fact they land at another website, is prohibited. The determination as to what is misleading or what constitutes a reasonable reader will be at the Company's sole and absolute discretion.

4.5.4 - Distributor-Developed Websites

Distributors may develop a website to promote the Products and/or Services or the Opportunity and support their team. Prior to publication, the Distributor must submit the proposed website to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com). The website may not be published or made accessible to members of the public unless the Distributor has received express written approval from the Compliance Department. The Company reserves the right to rescind its approval of a website in the event it determines that the website no longer meets its standards as outlined herein.

4.5.5 - Domain Forwarding

Domain Forwarding refers to forwarding for the purposes of directing a browser to another website, such as a Personal Replicated Website (PRW). Distributors wishing to use domain forwarding (e.g., going to www.example.com directs a browser to <http://cannaglobe.biz/yourPRWname>) for the purposes of directing a browser to their Personal Replicated Websites are permitted to do so; however, the Distributor must submit the domain name to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com) for written approval prior to active forwarding.

When directing readers to a Distributor's forwarding address, it must be evident to a reasonable reader, from a combination of the address and the surrounding content, that the link will go directly to a Distributor's CannaGlobe replicated website. Any attempt to mislead internet readers into believing they are going to a Company Personal Replicated Website, when in fact they land at another website, is prohibited.

4.6 - Distributor Personal Replicated Websites

If a Distributor desires to utilize an Internet Web page to promote his, her or its CannaGlobe Business, the Distributor may do so through the Personal Replicated Website (PRW) provided by the Company. These websites seamlessly link to the official Company website, giving the Distributor a professional and Company-approved presence on the Internet. Distributors may enroll both new customers and new Distributors at their PRW. All Company website addresses and sub-domains of Company websites are wholly owned by the Company.

Distributors may NOT independently design a website that uses Company trademarks, trade names, logos, or copyrighted materials, or that otherwise promotes, directly or indirectly, Products and/or Services or the Opportunity except as provided herein. Nor may any Distributor use “blind” ads on the Internet that make claims or representations that are ultimately associated with Products and/or Services or the Opportunity. Except as specifically provided in Sections 4.7.2 and 4.9.7, the use of any other Internet website or Web page to promote the sale of Products and/or Services or to promote the Opportunity is prohibited. If you have any questions regarding Personal Replicated Websites you may contact the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com) from the Distributor’s email address on file.

4.7 - Trademarks and Copyrights

The Company does NOT allow the use of their trade names, trademarks, taglines, designs, symbols, and/or copyrighted material by any person, including Distributors, without prior written permission by the Compliance Department. If Distributors are unclear on what constitutes a trade name, trademark, tagline, design, symbol, copyright, etc., it is recommended that they contact the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com).

Distributors shall not use or attempt to register any of the Company’s or a provider’s trade names, trademarks, service names, service marks, product names, company names or any derivative thereof for any email address, Internet domain name, social media, or any other media such as phone numbers or other electronic media. All domain names intended for use by a Distributor for the Distributor’s CannaGlobe Business must be submitted for approval to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com).

4.8 - Intellectual Property

The Company’s name, trademarks and service marks and copyrighted materials are owned by the Company or its distributors, and the Company’s business distributors’ name, trademarks and service marks and copyrighted materials are owned by the respective business partners (collectively, the “Proprietary Marks”). The use of the Proprietary Marks and copyrighted materials by Distributors must be approved in writing by the Company prior to use and must be in strict compliance with these Policies and Procedures. Distributors are not permitted to use Proprietary Marks in their business name, as a domain name or email address, on or in connection with any social or business networking site or in any other electronic media or transmission without the Company’s prior written consent, which can be withheld in its sole discretion. Any right to use Proprietary Marks and copyrighted materials by a Distributor is non-exclusive. Any and all goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks and copyrighted materials (including goodwill arising from Distributor’s use) inures directly and exclusively to the benefit of the Company, and/or its distributors (as applicable) and is the property of the Company and/or its distributors (as applicable). On expiration or termination of the Agreement, no monetary amount shall be attributable to any goodwill associated with any Distributor’s use of the Proprietary Marks or copyrighted materials.

4.9 - Media and Media Inquiries

Media relations efforts are to be handled solely by the Company or its distributors’ public relations department. Distributors are prohibited from initiating contact, issuing statements, making appearances, or conducting interviews with the media in which the Company is discussed.

Distributors shall not respond to media inquiries regarding the Company or any affiliate companies. All inquiries by any type of media (e.g., print, magazine, newspaper, online media, radio, television, or others) must be immediately referred to the Company (marketing@cannaglobe.com), without comment or discussion. This policy is designed to ensure that accurate and consistent information is provided to the public.

Distributors shall not utilize magazine, newspaper, online media, radio, television, advertisements, webcasts, video blogs, or any other mass multimedia form for the advertising or promotion of Products and/or Services or for the purpose of discussing any aspect of the Company without the express written approval of the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com). In the event that the Company grants permission for the use of such media, the Company reserves the right to be involved in the production process and the right for copies and future use of all recordings.

4.10 - Translations Prohibited

The Company strictly prohibits Distributors from translating any and all Company related materials from one language into any other languages. If a specific translation is needed, please contact the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com) with a detailed request.

SECTION 5

CUSTOMERS

4.2 - Customer and Distributor Leads; Customer Information

A Customer Lead is defined as any type of contact information (e.g., email address, mailing address or telephone number) for a prospective Customer. Because the Company does not have the ability to verify that Customer Leads purchased by Distributors are legitimate and because Customer Leads are often obtained through questionable methods, Distributors may not purchase or use Customer Leads. Any Distributor buying leads or Customer referrals does so at their own risk and assumes all liabilities.

The Company does not condone or approve buying Distributor leads or referrals. Any Distributor buying leads or Distributor referrals does so at their own risk and assumes all liabilities.

Customer contact information is confidential information belonging to the Company. Distributors shall not give, sell, or otherwise distribute such information. Violation of this Section may result in any of the Disciplinary Sanctions listed herein; including the involuntary cancellation of the Agreement.

4.3 - Customer Enrollment Compliance Guidelines

a) Distributors may not enroll on behalf of the Customer. The Customer must enroll personally. Only the account holder of record is authorized to enroll the Customer account. Only the Customer can accept the Company's Terms and Conditions.

b) Distributors have no authority to and shall not amend or change any of the Terms and Conditions of the Customer Agreement.

c) Distributors should advise Customers to utilize the following methods for enrollment: on the Distributor's Personal Replicated Website (preferred), by submitting a Customer Application form located in the Back Office to the Company or by calling the Company (1-833-722-8339) to enroll over the phone. Customers that enroll through a Distributor's Personal Replicated Website should use the Customer's personal computer, or personal computing device to enroll. If a Distributor is aware that Customers plan to use a central location, such as a community center, to enroll, the Distributor must seek prior written approval from the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com). Failure to comply with this section may result in any of the Disciplinary Sanctions listed herein; including the involuntary cancellation of the Agreement.

d) All required fields on the Customer Application must be completely filled out, signed and dated by the authorized account holder of record. Incomplete applications will not be processed and a new Customer Application must be submitted. The Company shall not be responsible for any damages or injury to the Distributor caused by the Distributor's submission of an incomplete Customer Application.

e) Distributors must ensure that Customers fill out the most current version of the Customer Application form. Customer Applications are updated regularly; Distributors may be notified of updates in their Back Office. Distributors have an obligation to periodically ensure that they have the most recent version of the Customer Application. The most up-to-date version is always available in the Back Office.

f) When it is apparent that either the Customer's English language skills are insufficient or the Customer or another person informs the Distributor of this fact, the Distributor will use an interpreter, find another Distributor fluent in the Customer's language, or cease pursuing the prospect.

4.4 - Customers Enrolled under the Company

In cases in which a new Customer enrolls without designating a specific Distributor or inadvertently selects an unintended Distributor, the appropriate Distributor may request that the Customer be transferred to the designated Distributor's Organization. Requests for transfer under this policy will be processed as long as the requesting Distributor makes the request in writing to the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com) within ten (10) business days from the Customer's date of enrollment with the Company, and with the Customer's permission. Distributors have a duty to manage their customers regularly and verify that their customer lists are accurate and up-to-date.

If a Distributor fails to request such a change within ten (10) business days, the Distributor waives any and all claims against the Company arising from the enrollment of the Customer.

4.5 - Disputes over Customer Enrollments

All Distributors in good standing have the right to refer customers for enrollment with the Company. If there is a dispute among Distributors as to which Distributor should be the enroller of a Customer, the Company will not attempt to resolve the dispute: the Company will regard the first Customer Application it receives as controlling. Distributors will not receive more than one bonus on the same Customer for the same products and services.

4.6 - Holding Customer Applications

Distributors must not manipulate referrals for enrollments of new Customers. All Customer Applications must be sent to the Company within twenty-four (24) hours from when they are completed. If not, the Application may be considered void by the Company. All Customer Applications are the property of the Company.

SECTION 5

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE and SPONSORSHIP

5.1 - Business Entities

A corporation, limited liability company (“LLC”), partnership, or trust (“Business Entity”) may apply to be a Distributor subject to prior approval by the Company. The Business Entity is required to furnish the names of all parties involved in the corporation, LLC, partnership, or trust on the Application. Failure to disclose or update the Company with Business Entity data may result in cancellation and/or termination.

However, no individual may hold an interest in more than one position. Equity owners, managers, officers, directors, trustees, or beneficiaries of a Business Entity applying as a Distributor may not have been (i) a Distributor as an individual, or (ii) an equity owner, officer, manager, director, trustee, or beneficiary of another Distributor Business Entity within six (6) calendar months preceding the execution of the Agreement.

For a Business Entity to become a Distributor or renew as a Distributor, it must provide the Company with the following:

- a) A completed Application (paper or online application) signed by an authorized officer of the Business Entity;
- b) A copy of the corporate Articles of Incorporation (Corporation), Articles of Organization or Operating Agreement (LLC), partnership agreement, or trust agreement; as applicable. Articles of Incorporation or Articles of Organization must be file-stamped by the Secretary of State in the state of formation. Partnership or trust agreements must be fully executed;
- c) The full name, address, and Social Security Number of all equity owners and each director, manager, officer, shareholder, unit, or holder who owns the Business Entity;
- d) A copy of IRS Form: SS-4 stating the Business Entity’s FEIN, which by providing such FEIN, you consent to verification of;
- e) A properly executed Form W-9;
- f) A copy of a fully signed resolution authorizing the Business Entity to enter into the Agreement; and
- g) A letter from the Business Entity designating one individual, who must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age, as the responsible party for the Business Entity’s operations and sales.

Any Business Entity submitting an online application will need to submit all required documentation to the Company (support@cannaglobe.com) in order to complete enrollment.

5.2 - Change of Distributor Legal Designation

Distributors may change their legal designation under the same Sponsor from an individual to a Business Entity (as well as changing the type of Business Entity). Distributors seeking such a change must comply with this Section and complete the Business Entity Change Application and submit it to CG Companies (support@cannaglobe.com). There is a $25.00 fee for each change requested; this fee must be included with a new Application.

5.3 - Organization Protection

When a vacancy occurs in an Organization due to the cancellation and/or termination of a Distributor's Agreement, the Distributors in the Downline of the terminated Distributor will remain in their original positions. The Customers associated with the terminated Distributor will remain as Customers unless they voluntarily cancel. Upline Distributors will continue to receive bonuses and commissions as they did prior to the cancellation and/or termination event. The position occupied by the terminated Distributor will not be filled and will remain vacant in the Organization. There is no "roll-up" or "compression" of Distributors and/or Customers. In addition, when a Distributor is terminated due to violations of the Policies and Procedures, bonuses and commissions resulting from violations of the Policies and Procedures will not be paid and may impact the entire Organization.

5.4 - Sponsoring a Distributor

All Distributors in good standing have the right to sponsor and propose to enroll others into the Company. While each prospective Distributor has the ultimate right to choose his, her, or its own Sponsor, Distributors are expected to maintain a high level of integrity and respect for one another in the Distributor community. When a Distributor has presented the Opportunity to a prospect either in person, online, or over the telephone in a formal presentation manner, other Distributors should be courteous of the relationship and not interfere in the sponsoring process by attempting to entice enrollment under a different Sponsor for a minimum period of thirty (30) days.

After this thirty (30) day time frame has elapsed, the prospect is to be considered a free agent and can be approached by other Distributors in the field. If two (2) Distributors claim to be the Sponsor of the same new Distributor, the Company will expect the resolution for the dispute to take place in the field. In the event this cannot be accomplished and the new Distributor will not make the choice, the Company will assign the new Distributor to the Sponsor identified in the first dated application received by the Company.

5.5 - Corporate Sponsored Distributors

Occasionally, a new Distributor will enroll directly under the Company's website without the support of a Sponsor. The Company believes that all Distributors should have the support of a Sponsor. In situations in which a new Distributor signs up under the Company, an attempt will be made by the Distributor Services Team to identify the correct line of sponsorship. However, in the event that no Sponsor is selected, the new Distributor will be assigned to a Sponsor as follows: such Distributors will be assigned to National (and above) on a rotating basis. the Company will contact the proposed sponsor to whom a new Distributor is being assigned for recommended placement within the Organization. The proposed Sponsor must contact the new Distributor within five (5) business days or the new Distributor will be reassigned.

5.6 - Sponsorship Rules

5.6.1 - Sponsor Support and Training

Distributors must provide ongoing communications, advice and support to their commissionable downline organization. Distributors are encouraged to assist new Distributors in training and enrolling new customers and other Distributors.

5.6.2 - Transfer of Sponsorship

Changing sponsors is strictly prohibited except as expressly set forth herein. A Distributor may rejoin the Company under a new sponsor only after a period of no less than six (6) months from the date that the Distributor's independent contractor relationship with the Company was voluntarily terminated or he or she failed to renew the Agreement.

To protect the integrity of all Organizations and safeguard the hard work of all Distributors, the Company does not permit a Distributor to change sponsorship (“Cross-Team Sponsorship”) when the Distributor is currently under a Distributor Agreement, or who has had such an Agreement within the preceding six calendar (6) months. The Company prohibits changes in sponsorship. Maintaining the integrity of sponsorship is critical for the success of every Distributor and Organization. Accordingly, the transfer of a CannaGlobe Business from one Sponsor to another is not permitted except as otherwise expressly provided herein. For example:

In cases in which new Distributors are mistakenly enrolled under someone other than the Distributor intended to be their Sponsor, those Distributors may request that they be transferred to another organization with their entire Organization intact. Requests for transfer under this policy may be submitted as long as the Distributor makes the request in writing to the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com) within ten (10) business days from the date of enrollment. In the event a Sponsor change is requested outside of the ten (10) business days, the request must be submitted by the Upline Distributors to the Company for consideration. If the request is considered and approved, the Company will require the approval of the enrolling Distributor and the Upline Distributors before the change can be finalized.

If a Distributor discovers Cross-Team Sponsoring, that Distributor shall report it to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com) immediately. The Company may take Disciplinary Sanctions against the Distributor that changed organizations and those Distributors who encouraged or participated in the Cross-Team sponsoring. The Company may also move all or part of the offending Distributor’s Organization to his or her original Marketing Organization if the Company deems it equitable and feasible to do so. The Company has no obligation to move the Cross-Team-sponsored Distributor’s Organization, and the ultimate disposition of the organization remains within the sole discretion of the Company. Distributors waive all claims and causes of action against the Company arising from or relating to the disposition of the Cross-Team-sponsored Distributor’s Organization.

Resolving conflicts over the proper placement of a Downline that has developed under an organization that has improperly switched Sponsors is often extremely difficult. Distributors waive any and all claims against the Company and its distributors that relate to or arise from changes in the lines of sponsorship.

5.7 - Sponsor Disputes

The person whose name appears on the Agreement date-marked at the earliest date is the sponsor. The Company reserves the right to determine the sponsor of a Distributor.

7.4 - One CannaGlobe Business per Individual or Entity

An individual or entity can only have an ownership interest, legal or equitable, in one (1) CannaGlobe Business. In the event that multiple accounts are discovered, the most recently sponsored accounts will be deactivated.

In addition, only one (1) person per Household may have an ownership interest in a CannaGlobe Business. For example, if you and your sister reside in the same Household, only one of you may have a CannaGlobe Business. The term Household is defined herein in the same manner as the U.S. Census Bureau definition. A Household includes all the persons who occupy a housing unit. A housing unit is a house, an apartment, a mobile home, a group of rooms, or a single room that is occupied (or, if vacant, is intended for occupancy) as separate living quarters. Separate living quarters are those in which the occupants live and eat separately from any other persons in the building and which have direct access from the outside of the building or through a common hall. The occupants may be a single family, one person living alone, two or more families living together, or any other group of related or unrelated persons who share living arrangements. People not living in households are classified as living in group quarters.

A violation of this Section is commonly known as Stacking. Stacking is defined herein as Distributors who enroll more than 1 business per household. Stacking is strictly prohibited.

5.8 - Stacking

Stacking is a fraudulent manipulation of the Compensation Plan. Stacking occurs when a sponsor places Distributors or Customers under a downline Distributor (who may not know or have any relationship with the Customers and/or Distributors) in order to trigger commissions and/or a promotion. Stacking is unethical and unacceptable behavior and may result in the cancellation or termination of the Agreements of all Distributors found to be involved and will result in the loss of all future commissions, bonuses, and other payments.

5.9 - Distributor Recruiting Rules

To protect the integrity of the Opportunity the following Distributor recruiting rules are strictly enforced:

5.9.1 - Enrollment of Spouses

Spouses can sign up as Distributors as either (i) a single Distributor (example: John and Jane Doe); or, (ii) as individual Distributor positions with the same sponsor.

Spouses, whether operating as a single Distributor or each with his or her own position under the same sponsor represent to the Company that each of them (i) is jointly bound by the terms of the Agreement and these Policies and Procedures; (ii) is responsible for any and all conduct by his or her spouse even if only one spouse is designated as a Distributor; and (iii) understands that if the spouse of any Distributor acts in a manner which would be a violation of the Agreement and/or these Policies and Procedures, such violation will be attributed to each of the Distributor position(s), and to both the husband and wife.

5.9.2 - Multiple Positions Prohibited

A Distributor may not own, operate, or have an interest in more than one Distributor position except as expressly stated herein.

5.9.3 - Phantom Positions

A Distributor shall not provide false or invalid social security numbers or FEINs on an Agreement. Placing another individual's name or establishing phantom Distributor positions is a violation of these Policies and Procedures and will result in the immediate cancellation and/or termination of the Distributor Agreement and loss of all future commissions, bonuses, and other payments.

5.9.4 - Cash or Monetary Incentives

The Company strictly prohibits Distributors from offering any cash or monetary incentives, promotions, prizes, or bonuses to their downline or upline as a method of influencing recruiting, or customer acquisition. Further, the Company prohibits the use of cash or monetary incentives, promotions, prizes, or bonuses for the purpose of recruiting new Distributors.

5.9.5 - Cross-Team Recruiting

The Company does not permit a Distributor to recruit other Distributors ("Cross-Team Recruiting") when the Distributor is currently under a Distributor Agreement, or who has had such an Agreement within the preceding six calendar (6) months.

5.9.6 - Targeting Other Direct Sellers

Defined as targeting the sales force of another Direct Selling company to sell Products and/or Services or to become Distributors. Targeting other Direct Sellers is prohibited. This includes the solicitation or enticement of members of the sales force of another Direct Selling company to violate the terms of their contract with such other company. If a Distributor engages in such activity, the Distributor bears the risk of being sued by the other Direct Selling Company. If this activity results in arbitration, a lawsuit, or mediation against the Distributor alleging that they engaged in inappropriate recruiting activity of its sales force or customers, The Company will not pay any of the Distributor's defense costs or legal fees and will not indemnify the Distributor for any judgment, award, or settlement.

5.9.7 - Other Direct Sellers Targeting Distributors

In the event that you are approached by a disenfranchised member of another Direct Selling company, you must inform the disenfranchised member to continue to follow the policies and procedures of the member's Direct Selling Company.

5.10 - Holding Distributor Applications

Distributors must not manipulate referrals for enrollments of new Distributors. All Distributor Applications must be sent to the Company within twenty-four (24) hours from when they are completed. If not, the Application may be considered void by the Company. All Distributor Applications are the property of the Company.

5.11 - Compensation Plan Claims

When presenting or discussing the Compensation Plan, Distributors must make it clear to prospective Distributors that financial success with the Company requires commitment, effort, and sales skill. Conversely, Distributors must never represent that one can be successful without diligently applying themselves. Examples of misrepresentations in this area include:

- It's a turnkey system;
- The system will do the work for you;
- Just get in and your downline will build through spillover;
- Just join and I will build your downline for you;
- The company does all the work for you; or
- You don't have to sell anything.

The above statements are examples of improper representations about the Compensation Plan. It is important that Distributors do not make these or any other representations that could lead a prospective Distributor to believe that he or she can be successful as a Distributor without commitment, effort, and sales skill.

5.12 - Income Disclosure Statement and Earnings Claims

The Company makes no guarantees of income, claims of profits or success, or that you will earn money by becoming a Distributor. The success or failure of each Distributor depends upon each Distributors's commitment, skills, and personal effort. Commissions are only paid on memberships sold to third-party, non-Distributor customers.

Distributors shall not make any earnings projections, earnings claims, anticipated or actual earnings claims, or disclosure of Distributor earnings (including the showing of checks, copies of checks, bank statements, or tax records). Moreover, the Federal Trade Commission and several states have laws or regulations that regulate or even prohibit certain types of earnings claims and testimonials made by persons engaged in Direct Selling. Thus, when discussing the earnings potential available through the Opportunity, Distributors may use only those materials produced by the Company, and may not make any claims inconsistent with such materials.

For example “earnings claims” could include, but are not limited to:

5.12.1 - Statement of actual earnings, for example, a statement made by a Distributor of his, her or its own earnings or those of another Distributor.

5.12.2 - Statement of average earnings, for example, a statement of the average earnings of all Distributors, whether active or not.

5.12.3 - Statement of non-average earnings, for example, “Our top Distributor earned XXX dollars last month.”

5.12.4 - Lifestyle claims, including statements involving large homes, luxury cars, exotic vacations, or other items suggesting or implying wealth. They also consist of references to the achievement of one’s dreams, having everything one always wanted, and other claims phrased in terms of “opportunity” or “possibility” or “chance.” Claims such as “My CannaGlobe earnings exceeded my salary after six (6) months in the business,” or “Our CannaGlobe Business has allowed my wife to come home and be a full-time mom or for me to be a stay-at-home dad” also fall within the purview of “lifestyle” claims.

5.13 - Earnings Disclosure Statement (EDS)

The Company may distribute an Earnings Disclosure Statement (EDS). The EDS is designed to accurately convey honest and comprehensive information regarding the income of Distributors. The EDS represents the average earnings of Distributors and provides high, low, and average monthly earnings information, as well as annualized averages. When discussing or promoting the Opportunity to prospective Distributors, the Distributor must provide a copy of the current EDS when available (in the Back Office) to each prospect.

5.14 - Products and Services Claims

Distributors are prohibited from making any claim regarding Products and/or Services that deviates from the terms, pricing, and conditions set forth in Company literature.

5.15 - Exclusivity; Non-Solicitation

During the term of the Agreement, Distributors may generally participate in Network Marketing companies so long as they do not solicit other Distributors to join such companies. However, once a Distributor reaches the rank of Area or above, the Company reserves the right to withhold promotional compensation and recognition, in its sole and absolute discretion, for those Distributors who are involved with any other Network Marketing company. In order to achieve the rank of National, a Distributor will be required to sign before receiving compensation or promotional benefits related to the rank of National, an agreement that states such Distributor will remove himself or herself and any Household member from any activities with any other Network Marketing companies, and resign from any current Network Marketing companies within a certain grace period.

For a period of six (6) months following cancellation and/or termination of the Agreement for any reason, Distributors shall not directly or indirectly approach or recruit other Distributors or Customers outside of their Personally Sponsored Distributors for any other Direct Selling business or for any other related products or services business.

Distributors and the Company understand and agree that because Direct Selling is conducted through networks of independent contractors dispersed across the entire United States and internationally and because business is commonly conducted via the Internet and telephone, an effort to narrowly limit the geographic scope of this no solicitation provision would render it wholly ineffective. Therefore, Distributors and the Company agree that this no solicitation provision shall apply to all markets in which the Company conducts its business.

Distributors understand and agree that customers procured on behalf of the Company are customers of the Company and its business partners. During the term of this Agreement and for six (6) months thereafter, Distributors may not, directly or indirectly, (i) market, offer, or sell products and/or services that compete with, or are similar to, those offered by the Company or its business partners or (ii) otherwise solicit, divert, take away or interfere with any of the customers, employees, or business of the Company. During the term of the Agreement and for six (6) months thereafter, Distributors may not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of themselves or any other individual or company, solicit or induce any Distributor, customer, or employee of the Company or its business partners (i) to participate in any network marketing or direct sales program offered by any other company, regardless of whether or not such company offers similar services, or (ii) to terminate or alter his or her business or contractual relationship with the Company.

5.16 - Sale of Competing Products and/or Services

Distributors may not represent, sell, or promote any competing products and/or services.

The Company will not tolerate Distributors specifically or consciously targeting the sales force of another Direct Selling company to sell the Company's products and/or services or to become a Distributor of the Company.

5.17 - Distributor Participation in Other Direct Selling Programs

A Distributor can engage in non-Company Direct Selling programs outside of CannaGlobe related products and services, but it is the responsibility of the Distributor to ensure that his or her CannaGlobe Business is operated separately and apart from any other program in which the Distributor participates. To this end, a Distributor:

5.17.1 - Shall not display Company promotional materials or sales aids with or in the same location as any other Direct Selling company's promotional materials, sales aids, products and/or services;

5.17.2 - Shall not offer Products and/or Services or promote the Opportunity to prospective or existing Customers or Distributors in conjunction with any other Direct Selling company's opportunity, product, or service;

5.17.3 - Shall not offer or promote the products and/or services of any other Direct Selling company at any Company-related meeting, seminar or convention; and

5.17.4 - Upon achieving the Rank of Regional (or above), must disclose any other Direct Selling company with which the Distributor is involved by sending an e-mail to the Compliance Department (compliance@cannaglobe.com).

5.18 - No Customer Solicitation in Unapproved Markets

The Products and/or Services may only be sold and marketed in Company approved markets. In some markets, not all of the Products and/or Services will be available. As additional markets are opened for the sale of Products and/or Services, the Company will announce such markets and availability to all Distributors. Neither the Company nor any of its distributors makes any representation, warranty or guarantee that the Products and/or Services will be available in any additional markets.

Accordingly, Distributors are authorized to promote the sale of the Products and/or Services and have Customers enroll for such services only in those specific markets that the Company has announced as being open.

The Distributor may, in markets in pre-launch status: (i) conduct training meetings; and (ii) enroll or attempt to enroll potential Distributors.

On occasion, the Company may announce that a market is open for pre-enrollment of Distributors or Customers prior to opening of the market for sale of the Products and /or Services pursuant to the Terms and Conditions announced by the Company at that time.

5.19 - No Exclusive Territorial Rights / Restrictions on Solicitation

The sale of Products and/or Services and is limited to the specific markets as announced by the Company; however, within such markets, there are no exclusive industries, organizations or territories granted to any Distributor. Distributors are not granted any exclusive territory in which to conduct their business. Each Distributor will have the right to conduct business in the locations authorized by the Company, without exclusivity. Distributors may solicit Customers or Distributors only in geographic locations as designated in writing by the Company. Distributors may only market, solicit, or sell the Products and/or Services designated by the Company.

GENERAL UNDERSTANDING AND BUSINESS OWNERSHIP

7.1 - Independent Contractor Status

Distributors are Independent Contractors and are not purchasers of a franchise or a business opportunity. The Agreement between CG Companies and its Distributors does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership or joint venture between CG Companies and the Distributor; and the Distributor may not represent or imply, orally or in writing, otherwise. Distributors shall not be treated as employees for tax purposes and shall not be eligible for employee benefits, insurance, and unemployment compensation. Distributors are responsible for paying applicable taxes due from all compensation earned as Distributors. The Distributor has no authority, express or implied, to bind CG Companies to any obligation or Agreement. Distributors shall establish their own activities and goals, hours, own personal level of commitment, without control and direction of CG Companies, so long as they comply with the terms of the Agreement and applicable laws.

A Distributor may be listed as an "Independent Distributor" in contact directories (e.g., yellow pages, white pages, online yellow pages) under his, her or its own name. Distributors shall not identify themselves as CG Companies brokers, consultants, or any title other than CG Companies Independent Distributors or CannaGlobe Independent Distributors. Distributors shall not place telephone directory display ads using the Company's names or logos.

7.2 - Vendor and Other Communications

Any questions, comments, or concerns relating to a Distributor's Business should be communicated directly to the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com). The Company's vendors are not able to accommodate communication directly from individual Distributors. Therefore, Distributors shall not directly or indirectly contact any vendor or supplier of the Company unless specifically approved by the Company in writing.

7.3 - Telephone Procedures

Distributors may not answer the telephone or have a voicemail greeting message saying or responding, "CG Companies," "CannaGlobe," or any other form of the Company name. Distributors may not use any language or manner that would lead the caller or give caller reason to believe that he or she has reached the corporate offices of the Company.

To indicate your status as an Independent Contractor, it is required that you state in any correspondence (such as e-mails or on business cards) that you are an "Independent CannaGlobe Distributor" or "Independent CG Companies Distributor". For example: "John Smith, Independent CannaGlobe Distributor."

7.5 - Actions of Household Members or Affiliated Individuals

If any member of a Distributor's Household engages in any activity that, if performed by the Distributor, would violate any provision of the Agreement, such activity will be deemed a violation by the Distributor. Similarly, if any individual associated in any way with a Distributor, corporation, LLC, partnership, or trust ("Affiliated Individual") violates the Agreement, such actions will be deemed a violation by the entity. Additionally, a Distributor may not hire any other persons to work or market for the Distributor's business.

7.6 - Requests for Records

Any request to the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com) from a Distributor for copies of applications, invoices, reports, or other records will require a fee of $2.00 per page per copy. This fee covers the expense of mailing and the time required to research files and make copies of the records.

7.7 - Returned Checks

All checks returned by a Distributor's bank for insufficient funds will be resubmitted for payment. A $35.00 returned check fee will be charged to the account of the Distributor. After receiving a returned check from a Distributor, all future orders must be paid via credit card, money order, or cashier's check. Any outstanding balance owed to the Company by a Distributor for Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) checks and returned check fees will be withheld from subsequent bonus and commission checks.

SECTION 8

SALE, TRANSFER, OR ASSIGNMENT OF CANNAGLOBE BUSINESS

8.1 - Sale, Transfer, or Assignment

Subject to the Company's prior review, and written approval, which shall not be unreasonably denied, by the Company, a Distributor may sell or transfer his or her Distributor position to an individual or a Business Entity. A "sale" will be defined as a change in which the individual selling the Distributor position no longer maintains a financial interest in the Distributor position upon completion of the sale. A "transfer" will be defined as a change in name and/or identification number in a Distributor position in which the individual transferring the Associate position still retains a financial interest upon completion of the transfer.

Although a CannaGlobe Business is a privately owned, independently operated business, the sale, transfer or assignment of a CannaGlobe Business and the sale, transfer or assignment of an Affiliated Individual's interest in a Business Entity that owns or operates a CannaGlobe Business is subject to certain limitations. If a Distributor wishes to sell a CannaGlobe Business, or an Affiliated Individual wishes to sell his or her interest in a Business Entity that owns or operates a CannaGlobe Business, the following criteria must be met:

- a) Both the seller and purchaser must complete the Sale or Transfer of CannaGlobe Business form and submit it to the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com). There is a mandatory $50.00 administrative processing fee associated with the sale or transfer of a CannaGlobe Business. The Sale or Transfer of CannaGlobe Business form is provided in the Distributor's Back Office;
- b) The existing line of sponsorship will be transferred in tact so that the business center remains the same in structure and genealogy;
- c) The purchaser must be, or must become, a Qualified Distributor. Part of becoming a Qualified Distributor involves completing an Application (whether the purchaser is an active or new Distributor), submitting it to the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com). No enrollment fee will be refunded to the seller and no enrollment fee will be charged to the purchaser. If the purchaser is an Active Distributor, the purchaser may be required to terminate their current CannaGlobe Business to ensure compliance with these Policies and Procedures and wait six (6) months to purchase the existing business to remain in compliance with these Policies and Procedures;
- d) Before the sale, transfer, or assignment can be finalized and approved by the Company, any debt obligations the selling party and, if applicable the purchasing party, has with the Company must be satisfied; and
- e) The seller and, if applicable the purchasing party, must be in good standing and not in violation or under investigation of any of the terms of the Agreement in order to be eligible to sell, transfer, or assign a CannaGlobe Business or his, her or its interest in a Business Entity that owns or operates a CannaGlobe Business.

The review and approval process will begin when the Company has received all of the documentation required in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Sale/Transfer Packet available from the Distributor Services Team. Each transfer or sale of a Distributor position shall be subject such requirements as the Company may impose from time to time. The Company reserves the right to request additional documentation that may be necessary to analyze the transaction between the purchaser and seller. The Company will, at its sole and absolute discretion, approve or deny the proposed sale, transfer, or assignment within thirty (30) calendar days after its receipt of all necessary documents from the parties.

The seller must receive written approval from the Company before proceeding with the sale. If the parties fail to obtain the Company's written approval for the transaction, the transfer shall be voidable at the Company's option.

The purchaser of the existing CannaGlobe Business will assume the obligations and position of the selling Distributor. A Distributor who sells a CannaGlobe Business shall not be eligible to reapply as a Distributor for a period of at least six (6) calendar months after the date of the sale. No changes in line of sponsorship can result from the sale or transfer of a CannaGlobe Business.

8.2 - Separation of a CannaGlobe Business

Dissolution of Business Entities or joint accounts (such as married couples or domestic partnerships) may not be disruptive to the Company, Customers, Distributors, or the Organization. For such dissolutions, arrangements must be made to assure that any separation or division of the business is accomplished so as not to adversely affect the interests and income of other Distributors, up or down the line of sponsorship. If such separation negatively impacts the Organization or the separating parties fail to resolve their separation in a timely manner, the Company may terminate the Distributor's Agreement.

During any dissolution process, the parties must adopt one of the following methods of operation:

- a) One of the parties may, with consent of the other(s), operate the CannaGlobe Business pursuant to an assignment in writing whereby the relinquishing spouse, partners, shareholders, or members authorize the Company to deal directly and solely with the other spouse or non-relinquishing partner, shareholder, or member; or
- b) The parties may continue to operate the CannaGlobe Business jointly on a "business-as-usual" basis, whereupon all compensation paid by the company will be paid according to the status quo as it existed prior to the divorce or dissolution proceedings. This is the default procedure if the parties do not agree on the format set forth above.

Under no circumstances will the Organization of a dissolving Business Entity or joint account (e.g. divorcing spouses) be divided. Similarly, under no circumstances will the Company split bonuses and commissions between divorcing spouses, members of a dissolving Business Entity, or a dissolving domestic partnership. The Company will recognize only one (1) Organization and will issue only one (1) bonus and/or commission payment per CannaGlobe Business per commission cycle. Bonus/commission payments shall always be issued to the same individual or Business Entity.

The Company may request that the Distributor provide a certified copy of the final decree of divorce which sets forth new ownership of the Distributor position.

In the event that parties to a divorce or dissolution proceeding are unable to resolve a dispute over the disposition of bonuses/commissions and ownership of the CannaGlobe Business in a timely fashion as determined by the Company, the Agreement may be terminated.

If a former spouse or domestic partner has completely relinquished all rights to the original CannaGlobe Business pursuant to a divorce or dissolution, he or she thereafter may be considered for enrollment under any Sponsor of his or her choosing without waiting six (6) calendar months. This will be reviewed by the Company on a case-by-case basis, in the Company's sole and absolute discretion. In the case of Business Entity dissolutions, the former shareholder, partner, member, or other entity affiliate who retains no interest in the business must wait six (6) calendar months from the date of the final dissolution before re-enrolling as a Distributor. In either case, the former spouse, domestic partner, or business affiliate shall have no rights to any Distributors or Customers in the former Organization. The new business must be developed without solicitation of the current Organization in the same manner as any other new Distributor pursuant to the rules contained herein.

8.3 - Transfer Upon Incapacitation of a Distributor

To generate a transfer of a CannaGlobe Business because of incapacity, the conservator, guardian, or trustee of the incapacitated Distributor must provide all necessary documentation. This documentation will establish the right of the subject conservator, guardian, or trustee to the incapacitated Distributor's CannaGlobe Business.

Should a Distributor become incapacitated and unable to work his or her business; and a family member or legal guardian wishes to assume operating control of the Distributor's business, the Company requires the following medical and legal documentation;

- i. A certified copy of medical documentation outlining the condition of the Distributor and his or her inability to effectively manage his or her CannaGlobe business; and/or
- ii. A copy of a living will setting forth provisions affecting ownership of the Distributor's position, or a certified copy of a court order determining legal guardian status.

The conservator, guardian, or trustee must:

- a) Complete and execute an Application, including all required tax forms;
- b) Comply with the terms and provisions of the Agreement; and
- c) Meet all of the qualifications for the incapacitated Distributor's Rank.

Any requests for placement transfer must go through the designated process for exception review. Once received and reviewed, the Company has the sole discretion and right to approve or disapprove a transfer of ownership of the Distributor's business to the designated family member or legal guardian.

8.4 - Succession of a CannaGlobe Business

Upon the untimely passing of a Distributor, his or her business may be passed to his or her heir(s). Appropriate legal documentation must be submitted to the Company to ensure the transfer is valid. In order to assign a position which has been inherited, a Distributor of the estate of the deceased Distributor must provide the Company with the following:

- i. A certified copy of the death certificate of the deceased Distributor;
- ii. A copy of the will setting forth provisions affecting ownership of the Distributor position with proof of its admission to probate, or a certified copy of a court order determining heirship;
- iii. Certified Letters Testamentary setting forth the name of the personal Distributor of the deceased Distributor's estate, dated no more than sixty (60) days from the effective date of the transfer;

Accordingly, a Distributor should consult an attorney to assist him or her in the preparation of a will or other testamentary instrument. Whenever a CannaGlobe Business is transferred by a will or other testamentary process, the heir(s) acquires the right to collect all bonuses/commissions of the deceased Distributor's Organization provided the following qualifications are met. The heir(s) must:

- a) Complete and execute an Application, including all required tax forms;
- b) Comply with the terms and provisions of the Agreement; and
- c) Meet all of the qualifications for the deceased Distributor's Rank.

Bonuses/commissions of a CannaGlobe Business transferred pursuant to this section will be paid in a single payment jointly to the heir(s). The heir(s) must provide the Company with an "address of record" to which all bonus/commission payments will be sent. If the business is bequeathed to joint heir(s), they must form a Business Entity and acquire a Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN). The Company will issue all bonus/commission payments and one (1) IRS Form 1099-MISC (Non-employee compensation) to the Business Entity. If time elapses during this process, commissions will be paid as earned.

PRODUCTS AND/OR SERVICES SALES

9.1 - Terms of Service

The Company, its distributors and/or its service providers have the sole right to accept or reject Customer orders for Products and/or Services, to establish and change without notice the Customer's prices of Products and/or Services, and to establish the terms and conditions of their offering. The Company, its distributors, and its service providers may discontinue offering or selling any Products and/or Services, without liability or obligation. Distributors may only offer and sell Products and/or Services in accordance with prices and terms and conditions established by the Company.

9.2 - Personal Purchases

An Independent Distributor is not required to subscribe to or purchase any product or service marketed by the Company or its distributors. If a Distributor chooses to purchase any Products and/or Services, he or she will be responsible for all purchase billings when due. Each personal purchase by a Distributor of any Products and/or Services shall be deemed a sale by his/her sponsor.

9.3 - Sales Presentations

Distributors understand and agree that only Company materials may be used in training sessions and business presentations. Distributors must present the Opportunity and Products and/or Services as separate relationships, so that each prospect will choose only those relationships he or she truly desires. In presenting the Opportunity to potential Distributors only those figures published by the Company and made available to Distributors for the specific purpose of sponsoring may be utilized. The use of other written or verbal income projections, actual Distributor commissions checks, all other income potential presentations whatsoever or use of any other unauthorized materials are strictly prohibited.

At sales presentations, Distributor shall truthfully identify themselves, their products, and the purpose of their business to prospective Distributors and/or Customers. Distributors may not use any misleading, deceptive, or unfair sales practices. Explanations and demonstrations of Products and/or Services offered shall be accurate and complete including, but not limited to, with regard to price, terms of payment, and after sales services and delivery.

Personal or telephone contacts shall be made in a reasonable manner and during reasonable hours to avoid intrusiveness (note however that telemarketing is not permitted). Distributors must immediately discontinue a sales presentation upon the request of a potential Customer. Distributors shall not directly or by implication, denigrate any other company, product or service. Distributors shall refrain from using comparisons which are likely to mislead and which are incompatible to the principles of fair completion. Distributors shall not abuse the trust of individual consumers and shall not exploit a customer's age, illness, lack of understanding, or lack of language expertise.

9.4 - Customer Privacy

An individual's right to limit use of personal information is an essential aspect of the Company's service. Distributors are charged with being the guardians of Customer information. A Distributor will not use in any way any information provided by the Customer during the enrollment process, or which the Customer may disclose during the subscription process, or information provided by the Company about the Customer, to market services to the Customer, or any other alternative purpose. Federal and state laws require that the Company and its Distributors protect this private information from dissemination to anyone and limit the ways in which the Company may use the information without appropriate Customer approval. The Company's privacy policy is available for public review at CannaGlobeup.net.

9.5 - Unauthorized Contact

Under no circumstances is a Distributor permitted to directly contact any product supplier or service provider with whom the Company or any of their respective distributors without receiving prior written authorization from an authorized officer of the Company.

Distributors may not directly contact regulatory agencies or any retail provider on behalf of the Company or in connection with any Company business, without receiving prior written authorization from an authorized officer of the Company.

9.6 - Communications

All electronic communications by Distributor's business should be clear, honest, and complete so that the recipient of the communication will know the exact nature of what is being offered. Distributors sharing personal information collected online shall provide individual consumers with an opportunity to prohibit the dissemination of such information, and if any Customer requests that his or her personal information not be shared, shall refrain from sharing such information. Distributors shall provide individuals the option to terminate any further communication. Distributors are required to abide by all applicable laws and regulations regarding electronic communications and shall not conduct activities via electronic communication in any market where such activities are prohibited by law.

9.7 - Claims and Warranties

Distributors may make no claim, representation, or warranty concerning any Products and/or Services of the Company or any of their respective distributors, except those expressly approved in writing by the Company or contained in company materials. Except as expressly stated herein, the Company makes no warranty or representation, express or implied, as to the merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, workmanship, or an other warranty arising by law, statute, usage of trade, or course of dealing concerning any Products and/or Services purchased from or through the Company. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, all such information, software, products, services related graphics, and content are provided "as is", "with all faults," and "as available."

SECTION 10

COMPENSATION

10.1 - Compensation Qualification and Eligibility

Qualification and eligibility requirements are contained in the Agreement and the Compensation Plan. The Compensation Plan is based on the sale of the Products and/or Services to Customers. Distributors must fulfill personal Customer enrollment requirements, as well as meet other responsibilities set forth in the Compensation Plan to be eligible for bonuses and commissions or advancement to higher Ranks.

Distributors must be Active and Qualified Distributor in accordance with the Compensation Plan and must be in compliance with the Agreement in order to be eligible to receive payment of any commissions, bonuses, and other compensation.

10.2 - Compensation Payment

The Company shall pay commissions to Distributors in accordance with the Compensation Plan. The Company may change any portion of the Compensation Plan, including, without limitation, commission percentages, commission structure, bonuses, and/or any other form of compensation at its option and its sole discretion.

Each Distributor's commissions will be paid to the Distributor by a third-party payment-processing vendor. The threshold minimum amount for which the Company will issue a payment to a Distributor is $50.00. If a Distributor's bonuses and commissions do not equal or exceed $50.00, the Company will accrue the bonuses and commissions until they total $50.00. Payment will be issued once $50.00 has been accrued or will be paid annually. If a Distributor's social security or FEIN identification number does not match the social security or FEIN number on the bank account receiving payments, then the Company will not pay out commissions until the discrepancy is resolved, at which time any back-dated commissions will be trued up. All prizes and trips earned by Distributors will be considered taxable income and reported to the IRS on a Form 1099.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, all commissions, bonuses or other compensation owed to a Distributor, regardless of the amount accrued, will be paid at the end of each fiscal year or upon cancellation and/or termination of a Distributor's CannaGlobe Business.

Payment-processing fees may apply to all bonus and commission payments issued to a Distributor. Such fees are charged by the third-party payment-processing vendor and are disclosed on its website.

10.3 - Adjustment to Bonuses and Commissions

Distributors receive bonuses and commissions and rank advancement based on the actual sales of Products and/or Services to Customers as well as development of Downline Distributors. As such, errors or insufficient data used to pay such bonuses and commissions or to accelerate rank advancement will be corrected and such corrections may result in adjustments to bonuses, commissions, and rank advancement. In the event a Customer receives an adjustment to their billing due to error, and bonuses and commissions have been paid out based on the amount paid by the Customer prior to such adjustment, it may be necessary to likewise adjust the future bonus and commission payments to those Distributors who received bonuses and commissions based on the billing amount prior to the adjustment. This may result in a deduction from future payments or in the payment of additional amounts to such future payments. When this occurs, it will be clearly disclosed to the affected Distributors as either a positive or negative adjustment.

10.4 - Commission Documentation Delivery

All documentation necessary for commission and bonus qualifications must be received by the Company daily by 11:59 p.m. Central Standard Time for a payment to be issued on the same day the following week.

10.5 - Commission Inquiries or Errors

Any commission discrepancy must be reported to the Company in writing. All commission inquiries must be received by the Company within ninety (90) days of the commission release date. If a Distributor has inquiries about or believes any errors have been made regarding bonuses and/or commissions, reports, or charges, the Distributor must contact the Distributor Services Team by either email (support@cannaglobe.com) or by mail (CG Companies Attn: Commissions, 15511 Hwy 71 West, Suite 110, #420, Bee Cave, TX 78738) within sixty (60) calendar days of the date of the purported error or incident in question. The Company will not be responsible for any errors unless it is determined that the error was the result of an administrative oversight and was not corrected. The Company will not be responsible for any errors, omissions, or problems not reported to the Company within sixty (60) calendar days from the date the bonus/commission was paid.

10.6 - Reissued Checks

Distributors must request in writing if he or she wants a lost or missing check reissued, which re-issuance may take up to ninety (90) days. If a commission payment must be reissued, the Distributor will be responsible for the fees involved with placing a stop payment on the original payment and reissuing a new payment.

10.7 - Administration Fees.

An administration fee of $3.00 will be deducted from each commission payment made by check to cover processing costs relating to the issuance of the check and the statement. No administrative fee will be charged on commissions paid by direct deposit. A commission payment will not be issued either by check or direct deposit until the total amount (less the administration fee) is greater than $50. All commissions are accumulated until the appropriate amount is reached and added to the next commission payment of its kind.

10.8 Commissions Payment Delay

The Company is not responsible for loss of commissions or delay in payment due to any of the following: (i) the Agreement is not on file with the Company or is incomplete, incorrectly filled out, or not executed; (ii) improper notification of change of address has occurred; (iii) outdated forms are submitted to the Company; or (iv) there are issues in processing customer information.

10.9 - Offset

The Company has the right to offset any amounts owed by a Distributor to the Company, including, without limitation, any indemnity obligation incurred from commissions or other compensation or payments due to the Distributor.

SECTION 11

The Company bills thirty (30) days in advance for the monthly Back Office subscription. The Back Office is a non-refundable service and the Company does not provide for partial month refunds. If a Distributor wishes to cancel his, her, or its Back Office subscription, they may do so through their Back Office or by contacting the Distributor Services Team (support@cannaglobe.com).

The Company reserves the right to deny Distributors' access to their Back Office at its sole and absolute discretion. Distributors may register for a Back Office during enrollment or from the Company's Distributor website (cannaglobe.biz). A Back Office account may be suspended or terminated after three (3) unsuccessful attempts at billing. If a Distributors's Agreement is cancelled, terminated, or suspended, their Back Office will be automatically terminated.

The Back Office is separate from the Distributor's Personal Replicated Website.

The Back Office provides access to confidential and proprietary information that may be used solely and exclusively to promote the development of a Distributor's CannaGlobe Business and to increase sales of Products and/or Services. An online report generated that provides critical data relating to the identities of Distributors, sales information and enrollment activity of each Distributor's Organization. This report contains confidential and trade secret information that is proprietary to the Company.

All information provided by the Company in the Back Office regarding Downline Organization, Customers, and commissions reports is believed to be accurate and reliable.
